

Let Our Past Influence Your Future
Let Our Past Influence Your Future
Let Our Past Influence Your Future

Is your organisation public sector, subject to audits and inspections?

Has your organisation or service been subjected to a recent audit or inspection?

Is there uncertainty about how to implement recommendations made, by the auditors or inspectors?

Is there a lack of capacity and or resources to implement change?

Are there areas of your service or organisation that could benefit from modernisation?

If you were able to answer yes to any of the questions above, then we can help.

Arbouin Edwards Consulting are able to support you prepare for the scrutiny of regulation.

Post inspection, we are able to support you through the implementation of recommendations.

We can help you introduce changes that will deliver sustained improvements.

Our consultants' past experience of working with regulators, in the public, private and voluntary sectors, allied to their track record of working in senior management, equips them with a knowledge and understanding of what matters in driving improvement. This experience will be invaluable in making the future of your organisation promising.

We can:

- help you understand how users experience services across organisational boundaries
- help you establish firm foundations for good management
- support elected members, managers and officers appreciate and fully understand the significance of delivering value for money.

Ambulance Service
Education
Housing Associations
Primary Care Trust
Probation Service

Criminal Justice
Health Authority
Fire Authority
Police Authority
Charities

Development Agency
Housing
Local Authority
Prison Service
Voluntary Sector